

The Means of Grace

October 10, 2021

14 teachings that define being Lutheran:

1. Grace alone

Grace is one of those big, beautiful Bible words. As with all big, beautiful Bible words, while it is an immensely comforting concept, it has also been misunderstood and misapplied throughout history.

Roman Catholicism has traditionally taught that grace is a quality that God injects into people so that they can obey his will and earn his blessings. Others try to limit the power of grace, teaching that grace can only get a person so far; we have to apply ourselves to doing acts of love or making the right decision for Jesus to finish the job.

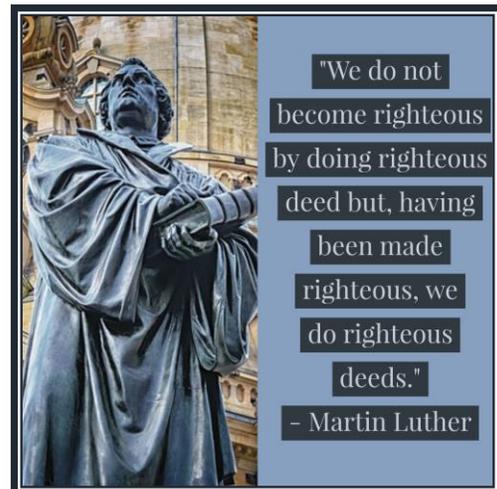

Grace, however, is a quality in God. In fact, it defines who the true God is and what he does. Throughout the Old Testament, when God's characteristics are listed, grace is usually near the top of the list. For example, when God revealed himself to Moses on Mount Sinai, he declared, "The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness" (Exodus 34:6).

The standard catechism definition of grace is "God's undeserved love." Yet grace is deeper than that. It is the love that moves God to act for those who cannot act for themselves and need his loving action. God acts in grace simply because God wants to act in grace. That is who God is and what God does. Martin Luther defined grace this way: "Grace means the favor by which God accepts us, forgiving sins and justifying freely through Christ" (Luther's Works Vol. 12, p. 376).

Lutherans confess that it is by grace alone that we have been rescued from the curse and condemnation of sin (Romans 3:23,24). It is by grace alone that we have been given new life as one of God's children (Ephesians 2:4,5). It is by grace alone that we have been given the gift of eternal life (John 3:16). The Formula of Concord states this clearly and precisely. "We unanimously believe, teach, and confess the following about the righteousness of faith before God. . . . A poor sinful person is justified before God, that is, absolved and declared free and exempt from all his sins and from the sentence of well-deserved condemnation, and is adopted into sonship and inheritance of eternal life, without any merit or worth of his own. This happens without any preceding, present, or subsequent works, out of pure grace, because of the sole merit, complete obedience, bitter suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord Christ alone" (III:9).

This is what makes grace such a big, beautiful, comforting Bible word. Our forgiveness, our right standing before God, and our eternal home in heaven are certain and secure entirely "out of pure grace." That pure grace is centered in Jesus' completed work for us. Grace alone means that our salvation, from beginning to end, is accomplished. True Lutherans understand this, proclaim it, confess it, and find comfort and confidence in grace alone.

JONAH

AT-A-GLANCE

O.T. BOOK #32

AUTHOR: THE PROPHET JONAH

WRITTEN: 780 BC

Jonah: God's compassion for all nations

Old Testament: 39 Books

32

New Testament: 27 Books

CLAIMS TO FAME: Jonah was swallowed by a giant fish after refusing to prophesy to the kingdom of Nineveh.

FAMOUS STORIES INCLUDED:

- Jonah is swallowed by the giant fish.
- Jonah prophesies to Nineveh and the nation repents.

MOST FAMOUS VERSES:

And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land. Jonah 2:10

And should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left—and also many animals?" Jonah 4:11

Important Points about the Book:

- Jonah is the most widely known of the Minor Prophets, the last 12 books of the Old Testament.
- Jesus referring specifically to Jonah as a sign of the Messiah giving the story credibility to anyone who might doubt it. Matthew 12:40-41.
- Through the book of Jonah, we see God's compassion for Nineveh when they repent. Perhaps the greatest miracle in Jonah is not the fish but the total repentance of all of Nineveh in one day... even though it didn't last.
- The book of Second Kings tells us that Jonah had prophesied about Israel's king Jeroboam II (2 Ki 14:25), which means his ministry may have overlapped with those of Hoesa (Hos 1:1) and Amos (Am 1:1; 7:11), who also preached to Israel during Jeroboam's reign.

The New Hymnal Is Here!

Nearly 100 volunteers served on 12 committees for the last 9 years as part of the WELS Hymnal Project.

To begin our transition to using this new hymnal in our ministry we are giving all our families an opportunity to purchase their own. The new hymnal is designed to be much more than just a book to be used in the pew on Sunday morning, it is in fact deigned to be a devotional book that can be used in your home all week!

For this reason, we'd like to first give our members an opportunity to purchase their own hymnal for use at home and at church.

A signup sheet is located by the entryway at church. If you'd like to participate in a group order, please sign up and indicate which hymnal or additional books for the church you'd like buy.

Sample copies of the new hymnal and Psalter are also on the table in the entryway for you to look over.

We pray that this new hymnal will be a blessing to our worship and your homes!

Two Weeks of Vacation Bible School

July is the month when most children in Mexico get out of school. This year that means they're free from online assignments and video classes and have more time on their hands. What better to do with that time than visit church!

We had two great volunteer groups come down for VBS – the first week from St. Paul (New Ulm, MN) and the second week from St. Mark (De Pere, WI). They each brought their unique gifts and experiences to our summer program. There was a nice mix of those who had been here before (one 4-time volunteer to Mahahual!), and those who were visiting for the first time.

We were very blessed to have our new space this year, enabling us to keep the children spread out as opposed to our cramped quarters in the past. Without the new building, we may not have been able to run VBS this year with Covid restrictions still in place.

For three hours a day the children received Bible classes, English lessons, arts and crafts, and sports time at the nearby community center. The two themes were "Genesis – How It All Began" and "Stories of Jesus' Power." It took quite a bit of energy and Christian love, but both the kids and teachers had a wonderful time, and the Word reached precious souls for Christ. Children and teens enjoyed their time socializing, laughing, and learning. Some enjoyed themselves so much they asked when the next program would be.

There was also plenty of time put in helping us organize, clean, paint, install socket plates, and work on all sorts of little details in our new construction ... and some free time, of course, for snorkeling, visiting Mayan ruins and eating delicious seafood.

We had a nice turnout for VBS this year and can only imagine the events God has in store for our community in the new church and education center in the future. May his Word be preached and his name be praised!
